The Chinese Government wishes to make the following reply:

Gao Zhisheng is a male resident of Yulin, Shaanxi Province, born in 1964. In December 2006 he was sentenced to 3 years of prison and 5 years' probation and was deprived of his political rights for 1 year, for the offence of instigating subversion of the political power of the State. On 16 December 2011 Beijing Intermediate People's Court No. 1 revoked the probation and, in accordance with the law, imposed the serving of the original prison sentence. He was released having served his time in August 2014 and the public security authorities have not carried out any coercive measures against him since then. According to the information at our disposal, on 13 August of this year Mr. Gao's family reported to the police that he had gone missing. The public security authorities have carried out an inquiry in accordance with the law, and the case is currently still open.
