We have received the letter of urgent appeal (UA G/SO214 (67-17) Assembly & Association (2010-1) Health(2002-7) G/SO 214 (107-9) G/SO 214 (53-24) CHN 11/2013), jointly sent by Special Rapporteur on the promotion and protection of the right to freedom of opinion and expression; Special Rapporteur on the rights to freedom of peaceful assembly and of association; Special Rapporteur on the right of everyone to the enjoyment of the highest attainable standard of physical and mental health; Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights defenders; and Special Rapporteur on torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment pursuant to Human rights Council resolutions 16/4,24/5, 24/6, 16/5, and 16/23. The Chinese government has carried out a careful investigation on the matter referred to in the letter and hereby has provided the following points of reply:

Cao Shunli is a woman of 52 years of age. On the 14th of September, 2013, she was detained by the Beijing Public Security Bureau on the criminal charge of disturbing public, social and administrative order. On the 21st of October, 2013, a warrant for Cao's arrest was issued by the People's Prosecutor of Chao Yang District, Beijing Municipality on the charge of the crime of provocation. On the 26th of November, 2013, this case was handed over by the public security organ to the People's Prosecutor, Chao Yang District, Beijing Municipality for further review and prosecution.

After Cao's detention on the criminal charge and subsequent to her arrest, her family was duly informed in accordance with the regulations in force. During her detention period, Cao had access to medical care as provided by the detention centre. According to the medical assessment doctors made, no serious liver disease was diagnosed.

The Chinese government cordially requests that the text above be included in full in the relevant United Nations documentation.
